Aviation Girls Make Big Hit at the Odeon

Have Good Comedians, Lively Chorus and Song Numbers Right Up to Date.

With a pair of first class comedians, a pretty and lively chorus, up-to-date music and song numbers, the Aviation Girls were greatly appreciated at three performances at the Odeon yesterday and bid fair to secure the title of the best tabloid company seen here this season. "The Wrong Mrs. Rose" is the title of the bill. Most pleasing specialties are introduced throughout the action of the comedy. Ladlow Allen takes a blackface part and he certainly demonstrated his ability as a blackface comedian. He is ably assisted in his comedy work by Messrs. Kramer and Landrum. The chorus is composed of six of the prettiest girls that have ever graced the Odeon stage. There will be a change of program tomorrow afternoon.

With pretty girls, funny comedians, talented principals, fine dancers, especially attractive costumes mingled with tuneful melodies, Tassell and Young's Southern Beauties surpassed all advance notices with their three performances at the Palace yesterday. It is most difficult to pick out the stars, as each and every male and female has a hard time for the success of the show. Perhaps the most appreciated features were the singing of Forest Nelson, the dancing act of Mabel Bailey and Dick Macy and the singing of the Castle Square quartet.

There will be a change of program tomorrow afternoon and on Thursday nights as an added attraction there will be a chorus girl contest.

"Lying Lips," a five act drama of love featuring Winnifred Greenwood and Franklin Ritchie is the attraction at the Bijou today.

"Lying Lips" is replete with gripping situations. An artist with old fashioned ideas regarding women, attending a performance at a Broadway theater, saves the life of the star. Friendship ripens into love, after marriage the wife feels her loss of independence and the restraint her husband places upon her, she meets her

Nervous Periodical Headaches

This trouble commonly called "sick headache," is said to be due to the retention of urea in the system. Often it is stated that a poor condition of the blood is a cause of these headaches, or that it is a nervous condition; and in certain cases, no doubt this is true.

Where treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr. A. F. Schellhardt of Louisville, has found anti-kamnia tablets to give prompt and satisfactory relief. "Heat should be insisted upon," he says, "and the patient should go to bed, darken the room, and all the attendants and family should be as quiet as possible. An emetic will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open with 'Antidote,' a hot bath and a thorough rub-down with a coarse towel, often give grateful relief. Two anti-kamnia tablets when the first signs appear, will usually prevent the attack. During an attack, one tablet every hour or two will shorten the attack and relieve the usual nausea and vomiting." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for nervous headaches, neuralgia and all pains.

Our Chi-Namel Boy is here applying Screen Enamel. It will make the wire appear as good as new and if used yearly will positively make your screens last as long as the house.

Have you seen the WHEELER SCREEN?

former manager who induces her to return to the stage in a revival of one of her old hits. She jumps at the opportunity but gives up the idea because of her husband's anger.

A beautiful scenic reel showing scenes in the Yosemite valley will be shown, closing with a cartoon comic.

The second chapter of Billie Burke in "Gloria's Romance" will be shown Thursday.

Cohan and Harris are to produce, about the middle of the month, in Atlantic City, a comedy called "Buried Treasure," by Rude Johnson Young. It will have a notable cast, including Josephine Stevens, Adele Rowland, Martin L. Alsop, Zella Sears, Otto Kruger, Ernest Stillard and Charles Browne.

The feature attraction at the Robinson Grand today is the newest offering on the Metro program, "The Come Back," with Harold Lockwood, the gifted romantic actor, and the charming and popular Mae Allison. It is a vital drama, brimming with thrills and romance, portraying the regeneration of a society idler in the rugged North woods. It is pictured in five wonderful acts. The added attraction will be Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in another of the Metro Bros comedies. The late Pathe News is also on this bill.

In "Gloria's Romance," in which Billie Burke portrays the role of a wealthy society girl, a $15,000 Russian sable coat will be seen, together with a $12,000 ermine coat, a $9,000 chinchilla coat, a blue and gold and metal embroidered evening coat, trimmed with silver fox fur, valued at $2,500, and a dinner gown trimmed with lace that was priced at $150 a yard. Feminine picture goes will find the picture a regular fashion bazaar and undoubtedly will follow it with interest.

William Collier with beautiful Enid Markey is starred in the Ince-Triangle play, "The No Good Guy," in five acts at the Orpheum theatre today and tomorrow. The story was devised to give Mr. Collier ample opportunities for his frolicsome abilities, and it has fully achieved its purpose. The hero is a youth whose large fortune is held in trust by an apparently respectable but really wicked uncle. The young man, halted in a career of mad dissipation by a command to go to work or starve, opens a detective agency. Then come adventures—a regular storm of them, with Mr. Collier tumbling through to a triumphant finish, with the girl won and the uncle brought to his crooked knees.

An all star Broadway cast is seen in the rollicking Keystone comedy, "A Dash of Courage," in two very funny acts, making seven acts in all.

Wednesday, the great drama, "Peg O' the Ring," featuring Grace Cunard and Francis Ford will start, and will be shown every Wednesday in connection with the Triangle plays.

When Sir Herbert Tree returns to New York after his visit to the West, he will revive "The Newcomers," which he produced in London. He will appear also in the version of "David Copperfield" called the "Highway of Life."

William S. Hart began work, this week at Inceville as the star of a new western Triangle-Kay Bee play from the pen of C. Gardner Sullivan. It is another "bad-man" story, the character Hart is portraying being akin, in a great degree, to that of Steve Denton in "The Aryan" and Blaze Tracy in "Hell's Hinges."

Mr. J. F. Murphy's Wonderful Busy City Feature Attraction Great American Show

Imagine, if you can, the city of Chicago ill built in miniature, and you have a fair conception of what this wonderful attraction is. Great factories running full blast, steamboats running up and down the river, loading and unloading their cargoes of freight. Passenger and freight trains running just as we see them every day. A circus parade passing over a bridge, a miniature amusement park in full operation, as its own police department, water works, fire department, churches, theatres, draw and jack knife bridges, sawmills in full operation. And many other things are included in this wonderful exhibition, which is the product of a master mind. To be seen here with the great American Shows. Under the auspices of the Norwood Baseball Club Carnival, June 12 to 17, inclusive, at the old Clarksville Mill lot, corner Main and Pike streets.

The Really Important

"Concentration is the secret of strength," said Emerson. A man of only average ability, with concentration, can accomplish more than a man of unusual talents who lacks that power. When a man is extravagant he permits his mind to be distracted from the really important things in life. Open an account with this strong bank and add to it regularly.
